Meet our Speaker

Elliott Stonecipher is a native and resident of Shreveport, Louisiana. He received his B. A. Degree from Louisiana Tech University and his Master's Degree from LSU. He is President and owner of Evets Management Services, Inc.

Mr. Stonecipher began his career in public education, and began work in the Department of Education at age 25. Three years later he left government to begin work in public opinion polling and campaign consulting. His firm later shifted to a concentration of work in various forms of geo-demographic analyses for clients in the financial services industry, as featured in such publications as The American Banker. For over 20 years, Mr. Stonecipher and his company have also provided opinion research in change-of-venue studies in criminal court cases, particularly those involving capital murder charges.

In 2002, Elliott Stonecipher was a consultant for, and co-authored the final report of, a post- 9/11 U. S. Government study into possible bio-terrorism attacks in the U. S., under the sponsorship of the U. S. military and the Centers for Disease Control (CDC). The study results were published in the CDC Emerging Infectious Diseases magazine.

Since Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Elliott Stonecipher has committed to pro bono work on a range of local, state and national issues, including reform of governmental and political ethics, and reform of national policies governing the U. S. Census Bureau.

Mr. Stonecipher frequently serves as guest lecturer in colleges and other public venues, and has taught Demographics on the part-time faculty at Centenary College. His work has been published in The Wall Street Journal, and he has appeared on CNN and Fox News Channel.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

JOHN BOWMAN
2012 PRESIDENT
688-4939

Business activity in Southern Hills is now at a rapid pace. Soon we will have a Denny's Restaurant, Kool Smiles Dentists, Carl's Jr., Velocity Care and Waffle House. Also Don's Portable Buildings is relocating to Southern Hills as Z & K Portable Buildings.

Come to the general meeting and hear Elliott Stonecipher discuss the LA 3132 Extension. This will also have a positive impact on our area. Make your reservations for the meeting and bring a guest, also.

See you there.
