Scott Hughes currently serves as the Executive Director of the Alliance For Education, a non-profit organization located in Shreveport (LA) focusing on systemic improvement of the public education system in the seven parishes of northwest Louisiana. He is a graduate of Centenary College of Louisiana with a B.S. Degree in Business Administration. Scott is very active in civic activities and has served on a number of local Board of Directors including the Boy Scouts of America, the YMCA, Shreveport Green and several area Chambers of Commerce. Scott received the Shreveport Chamber of Commerce Young Leader Award in 1999, was named Small Business Person of the Year in 2000 and was a graduate of the CABL Leadership Louisiana Program Class of 2007. He serves on the editorial board and writes a monthly column on politics for SB Magazine and serves as the on-air political analysts for KTBS-TV, the Shreveport market ABC affiliate. The son of a retired Air Force officer and school teacher, Scott grew up living around the country and the world, but now by choice lives in Shreveport with his wife and two children.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

One of the "hot topics" for our area is the concept of Independent School Districts. This will require action from our Legislature and is a topic that I think we need to acquire as much information about as we can. Scott Hughes, Executive Director for the Alliance for Education will be our guest speaker at our regular meeting.

I would like to request that you invite a business associate and attend this informational meeting. Please make plans also to have a delicious meal with us. I plan to start the meeting a few minutes early to give Scott the most time we can for his presentation. Please make your reservation now!

See you there.
